NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR

My name is JoJo Dries, and I am the Founder and Executive Director of On The Wings of Angels. We would like to extend an invitation to you to join us as a partner in 2025, as we continue our mission to provide immediate, tangible, no red tape resources, community, and support to survivors of domestic violence.

At On The Wings of Angels, we understand that escaping abuse is only the beginning of a survivor's journey. Our programs are designed to ensure that survivors have the resources they need to rebuild their lives, free from fear and uncertainty. We provide direct access to necessities like housing, food, safety planning, attorneys, therapists, advocates, and emotional support, without the bureaucracy or delays that often accompany traditional services.

As we prepare for another impactful year, we are offering sponsorship opportunities that will allow your organization to stand beside us in this important work. Your support will help ensure that no survivor is left without the resources they need to start fresh and build a future full of hope.

Our 2025 sponsorship packet includes several levels of partnership, each offering unique benefits designed to promote your brand while supporting a critical cause. From title sponsorship of our flagship events to exclusive marketing opportunities, there are a variety of ways your company can get involved and make a meaningful difference.

By becoming a sponsor, your organization will not only receive exposure to a wide audience but also be seen as a champion for survivors of domestic violence. Together, we can make a tangible impact in the lives of those who need it most.

I would love to discuss these sponsorship opportunities further and explore how we can work together in 2025. This sponsorship packet outlines the various levels of support and the benefits your company will receive in return.

Thank you for your time and consideration. We truly appreciate your support and commitment to creating a safer, more compassionate world.

Warm regards,

JoJo Dries

ABOUT OTWOA

Join On the Wings of Angels, a community united in our mission to empower those adversely affected by domestic abuse. We offer a safe space to connect with like-minded individuals and receive support and guidance. We invest in the future of our community members and actively work to create positive and progressive change. We welcome all genders, nationalities, and creeds and do not tolerate hate, transphobia, homophobia, religious phobia, or any form of discrimination.

By joining forces, we can overcome societal barriers and build a society founded on equality and respect. Take action and donate today!

Humans who have been abused are on the one hand not trusting of anyone as they get out, and at the same time are super gullible or willing to trust anyone with a helping hand, only to get sucked into another narcissistic relationship. We want this to be known as a super safe space where trustworthy, vetted individuals are serving the humans coming to us.

If you are in the middle of a toxic situation, we look forward to becoming a part of your Team as you remove yourself from toxicity. We offer services, support and community. Your information will not be shared with anyone outside the safe members of our board, and whatever services you need from us.

Do you need a therapist? A Doctor? Attorney? Advocate for you and your children? Support? Friendship? Answers? Solutions? Contact us and we will plug you into the best solutions for your specific needs!
